

Instead of making it easier for telemarketers to call by having all states to abide by the National Do Not Call list, I think that the National version should be changed to be as strong as Wisconsin's version. Telemarketers are an imposition on families and interrupt their privacy. We should not have to be abused by telemarketers if we choose to be on Wisconsin's Do Not Call list.